

TUESDAY
CURATORIAL
PROGRAM
TERM FOUR 2016

TUESDAY CURATORIAL

Museum of the Great Southern

All sessions begin at 10.30am | Bookings not required

Entry by gold coin donation or $20 season ticket to attend all Term Four sessions

museum.wa.gov.au | 9841 4844

Discover different aspects of life in Albany and the amazing things this area has to offer.

DATE	TOPIC		PRESENTER
18 October	The Illustrative Power of Maps How we map the world changes the world	THE BIG DRAW FESTIVAL, OCTOBER 2016	Andi Adams, Mapmaker, with Malcolm Traill, Public Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
25 October	Makers of Albany Thomas Sherratt and George Cheyne		Malcolm Traill, Public Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
1 November	What's in a Name? Street names of Denmark, WA, and their origins		Bev McGuinness, President, Denmark Historical Society
8 November	It's Show Time! Stories from the Albany Show	ALBANY SHOW, 11-12 NOVEMBER 2016	Malcolm Traill, Public Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
15 November	District Snapshot Elleker and surrounds		Malcolm Traill, Public Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
22 November	Yurlman Mokare Mia Boodja Bringing Menang artefacts home after 175 years	YURLMAN EXHIBITION, NOVEMBER 2016 - APRIL 2017	Vernice Gillies, Aboriginal Liaison and Community Engagement Officer, and Malcolm Traill, Public Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
29 November	History on a Plate How the Great Spice Race started the map of Australia	DIRK HARTOG 400TH ANNIVERSARY OF AUSTRALIAN LANDFALL, 2016	Mike Lefroy, Maritime Historian and Duyfken Board Member
6 December	Highlights of 2016 Facts and fun from 2016 curatorials		Malcolm Traill, Public Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern *Program correct at time of printing.