

frog facts

Slender Tree Frog

The frog with a dark stripe along its sides...

What names do they have?

- Slender Tree Frog
- Litoria adelaidensis

What kind of animal are they?

- Amphibian

Threatened, thriving or trespassing?

- Thriving

What do they look like?

- Their backs are all the same colour, ranging from pale brown to bright green.
- They have a dark stripe along both sides of their head and body.
- The back of their thigh is black with bright yellow or red spots.
- Their toes are webbed and their fingers have sticky pads on them to grip onto things.

How big are they?

- Adults can be up to 4.5cm long.

What do they eat?

- Adult frogs eat small bugs like insects, spiders and worms. Tadpoles eat rotting plants and algae.

What do they sound like?

- A loud single grating 'grrrk.' Their choruses can be very loud when all of the males call together.

What is a fun fact about this animal?

- They have no close relatives in Australia.
- They sleep during the day, clinging on to reeds and grasses.

Where can they be found?

- In streams, dams, wetlands and shallow pools.
- They also can be found in gardens where people live.

