

Tuesday Curatorial

Learn fascinating history and natural science stories.

Image: (detail) 0905P Albany Convict Hiring Depot, 1870s. Courtesy: Albany History Collection

WAM

MUSEUM OF
THE GREAT SOUTHERN

Term
3

10.30 am

Residency Road, Albany
9841 4844
museum.wa.gov.au

Tuesday Curatorial

All sessions commence at 10.30am in the Old Co-op Building.
Bookings not required.
Entry is $2 per session or $20 season ticket to attend all Term Two sessions.

Immerse yourself in the fascinating history and stories of the Great Southern each week, as expert speakers bring the region to life. Held during school terms.
Come early for a coffee and biscuit too!

Date	Topic		Presenter
30 Jul	For the Term of His Natural Life Convict times in Albany		Malcolm Traill, Public Programs, Museum of the Great Southern
6 Aug	Two Decades in an Hour 1800-1820 at King George's Sound		Malcolm Traill
13 Aug	Flying the Yellow Jack Quarantine in Western Australia		Malcolm Traill
20 Aug	It's Not Easy Being Brown Frogs of Western Australia	National Science Week	Paul Doughty, Curator of Herpetology, WA Museum
27 Aug	Curatorials on the Road Gnowangerup and districts	Offsite in Gnowangerup	Malcolm Traill
3 Sept	Traversing the Land The story of surveying in Albany		Malcolm Traill with Andrew Lefort, Surveyor, Harley Dykstra
10 Sept	Medicine and Arts Intertwined Tales of the Albany Cottage Hospital		Malcolm Traill with Crispin Travers, Researcher
17 Sept	Fact and Fiction Examining historical murders of the Great Southern		Kirsten Beidatsch, Researcher and UWA student
24 Sept	2019 Southern Art + Craft Trail

*Program correct at time of printing