

MUSEUM OF THE GREAT SOUTHERN PRESENTS

TUESDAY
CURATORIAL
Term One 2019

Residency Road, Albany / 9841 4844 / museum.wa.gov.au

Image: Australian World War II Nurses, Singapore, 1941. Courtesy: WA Museum.

WAM MUSEUM OF
THE GREAT SOUTHERN

TUESDAY CURATORIAL

Museum of the Great Southern

All sessions commence at 10.30am in the Old Co-op Building | Bookings not required

Entry is $2 per session or $20 season ticket to attend all Term One sessions

Immerse yourself in the fascinating history and stories of the Great Southern each week, as expert speakers bring the region to life. Held during school terms. Come early for a coffee and biscuit too!

DATE	TOPIC		PRESENTER
5 February	What's in a Name Albany and all its variants		Malcolm Traill, Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
12 February	A Ticket to Paradise? Migrant stories from Albany and beyond		Malcolm Traill, Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern and Friends
19 February	A Decade in an Hour The 1950s in Albany		Malcolm Traill, Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
26 February	Landscape Loved and Lost Perceptions of the Pastoral on the Western Front during the Great War		Andrew Green, Research Fellow, University of Hertfordshire, UK
5 March	Above and Beyond Australian Nurses at War	INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY	Malcolm Traill, Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
12 March	Lead Kindly Light Harold Rowell's Emergency Landing at Fitzroy Crossing		David Hough, Author and Historian
19 March	From Lawson to Temperton Poetry in Albany over the years	WORLD POETRY DAY	Malcolm Traill, Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
26 March	Curatorials on the Road Mount Barker and Surrounds	OFFSITE IN MOUNT BARKER	Malcolm Traill, Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern
2 April	Plates, Plants, Pressure Cookers and Piles of Shell Grit Geology of the Torndirrup Peninsula	INTERNATIONAL GEOSCIENTISTS DAY	Ian Herford, Retired Geologist and Parks Manager
9 April	Makers of Albany Paul Terry and his legacy		Malcolm Traill, Programs Officer, Museum of the Great Southern

*Program correct at time of printing