

The NWS SHIPPING THEATRE is located on the ground level of the Western Australian Maritime Museum, offering a spectacular and uninterrupted view of the entrance to Fremantle Harbour.

Audio visual equipment and reputable staff support ensures efficient results for all professional presentations and lectures at one of Perth's finest settings.

CAPACITY
204 seats

TECHNICAL FACILITIES INCLUDE

PROJECTION

- Sony FX52 Data Projector, 5000 Lumens.
- 4m x 3m motorised projection screen.
- Connection for user supplied laptop computer at lectern position on stage (2 metre VGA cable included).
- Pioneer V-7300 DVD player in stage left equipment room.
- Sony VHS player (available upon request)

AUDIO

- Full range stereo speaker and amplification system.
- Aluminium finish lectern.
- Lectern gooseneck microphones x 2.
- Lapel radio microphone or hand-held microphone x 1.

LIGHTING

- House lighting for seating area, with 5 presets selectable from wall-mounted button panel.

INFORMATION & BOOKINGS

Telephone: (08) 9431 8323

Email: venuehire@museum.wa.gov.au

CONTROL SYSTEM

- AMX touch screen panel, lectern mounted.
- Volume control for microphones and DVD/VHS Players
- Screen raise/lower controls.
- Video source select controls (DVD, VHS or Computer)
- Curtains open/close controls.
- DVD/VHS control buttons (play, stop, rewind, fast-forward, etc.)

TECHNICAL SUPPORT CHARGES

For pre-function set up assistance or a technician on duty, the Western Australian Maritime Museum can offer you AV technical support (maximum of 3 hours in a block). Please note any extra equipment hired through the AV technician or support above the standard 3 hours will incur additional costs.

ADDITIONAL EQUIPMENT

A full range of additional AV equipment can be supplied for any function, hire rates available on application.

DIMENSIONS

Ceiling Height: 5m (for stage area)

Screen Size: 3.6m x 3.3m

Please Note: Only professional audiovisual technicians permitted in the Bio Box.

