

Tuesday Curatorial

Learn about our fascinating history and natural science.

MUSEUM OF
THE GREAT
SOUTHERN

📍 Residency Road, Albany

☎ 9841 4844

museum.wa.gov.au

Image: Bert Saw, Denmark Street Scene, 1920s. Courtesy: Denmark Historical Society

TERM 1 2020

Tuesday Curatorial

10.30am at the Old Co-op Building

Immerse yourself in the fascinating history and stories of the Great Southern. Each week, our expert speakers bring the region to life through a range of topics.

Come early for a coffee and biscuit too!

Date	Topic	Presenter
4 Feb	A Colonial Rivalry Perth vs Albany over the years	Malcolm Traill, Public Programs, Museum of the Great Southern, and Mike Lefroy, Fremantle Historian.
11 Feb	Through Sawdie's Lens The photographic genius of Bert Saw	Bev & Ross McGuinness, Denmark Historical Society.
18 Feb	Vaughan Williams's The Lark Ascending A centenary celebration of a classical favourite	Andrew Green, Research Fellow, University of Hertfordshire, UK
25 Feb	Curatorials on the Road Walpole and districts	Malcolm Traill and Walpole friends
3 Mar	Still Walking Together: More cross-cultural exploration of South Coastal plant life	Prof. Steve Hopper, University of WA, and Vernice Gillies, Kurrah Mia and Menang Elder.
10 Mar	A Campaigner Forever The life of Irene Greenwood (1898-1992)	Members of the Irene Greenwood Society
17 Mar	Breathing Life into Boodja Social and ecological restoration in an ancient land	Gondwana Link
24 Mar	A Decade in a Year The 1920s in Albany	Malcolm Traill
31 Mar	Maritime Albany Remembered Tales of the Douglas family	Malcolm Traill and Ross Shardlow, Marine Artist
7 Apr	Quarrelsome Souls Great arguments in Albany's history	Malcolm Traill

Bookings are not required. Entry is $2 per Curatorial.

*Program correct at time of printing

MUSEUM OF THE GREAT
SOUTHERN

Residency Road, Albany
museum.wa.gov.au

9841 4844